
Sam Boyd Stadium Code of Conduct

We want all fans to enjoy the action and excitement of today's event!

We expect all who enter Sam Boyd Stadium and its surrounding parking lots to adhere to this Code of Conduct.

The following actions are violations of the Code of Conduct and are prohibited:

- Failure to follow the directions of law enforcement, security, ushers, ticket takers, or any other stadium personnel.
- Fighting, taunting, or engaging in any action that may harm, endanger, threaten, or bring discomfort to anyone in the stadium.
- Sitting in a seat other than one's ticketed seat location or refusing to produce one's game ticket upon request by stadium personnel.
- Possession or use of any illegal drugs or irresponsible use of alcohol.
- Loitering in concourses, aisles, tunnels or stairs.
- Use of foul, abusive, or obscene language or gestures.
- Damage, destruction, vandalism, or theft of any property.
- Unauthorized use of disabled seating platforms or any seating designed for persons with a disability.
- Mistreatment of visiting team fans, including verbal abuse, harassment, profanity, confrontations, intimidation, or threatening behavior.
- Refusal to remove or turn inside-out clothing deemed offensive or obscene upon request by stadium personnel.
- Engaging in any action that causes a disruption, creates an unsafe environment, interferes with the game, or hinders the enjoyment of the game for others.

Failure to follow this Code of Conduct may result in ejection/trespass from the stadium, revocation of ticket privileges, and/or arrest. Although Season Ticket Holders may provide their tickets to others, the account holder of record is responsible for the actions of those using their tickets.

All patrons are subject to search. All items brought into the stadium are subject to search. Refusal of any guest cooperation will result in non-admittance into the stadium. Management is not responsible for items left behind at the gate or items lost, stolen or damaged.
